

QUESTIONS TO ASK AT A COLLEGE OPEN HOUSE

By now, you've done your homework, but you still may have some unanswered questions that need clarification. Here are some questions to add to your list:

What are the grade requirements for acceptance?

What type of financial aid is available?

How accessible is career services?

What is the admission deadline, or does the college accept students on a rolling admissions basis?

How easy is it for students to get internships?

What is the job placement rate?

What types of extracurricular activities or clubs are available?

What do you like most about the professors and classes?

What are the pros and cons of the new hybrid model of teaching?

Is the COVID-19 vaccine required to attend Vaughn College?

Do employers recruit students on campus?

What are the facilities—such as labs, simulator, gym and library—like on campus? Are there opportunities for hands-on or practical experiences?

What type of on-campus housing is offered? How many students live on campus versus commute?

Does the college offer meal plans?

What type of security does the campus have?

What is there to do for fun on and around campus?

Does the college have a full-service healthcare clinic on campus?

We hope you found this checklist of questions helpful. Being prepared with your questions in advance will ensure you have all the information you need to make a well-informed decision.