

The Mission of the Aeronautical Sciences Bachelor's Degree Program

The mission of the aeronautical sciences bachelor's degree program is to provide students with a program in aviation studies with optional flight training for students who wish to become pilots, aviation professionals or air traffic controllers.